We have had conversation with COM2 Recycling Solutions concerning a one-day, electronics recycling event to be held the same day as our Big Dumpster Day in April. Due to space restrictions, it was decided it would be better if it was a stand-alone event. Mogged will check with COM2 Recycling to see if they would be available to hold our event on April 26th, first choice, May 3rd, second choice.

The Town's 2001 ½ ton plow truck needs replacing. A request for bids will be published in the paper and on the website February 21st and February 28th. Specs will be available upon request from Chairman Alsteen. Bids must be submitted to Chairman Alsteen by March 7th, 5pm. Bids will be opened at the March meeting, Monday March 10th.

At the January meeting of the Town of Oconto Falls Town Board, authorization was given to the Ad-hoc Town Hall Build Committee to search for and negotiate a price for acceptable property for future Town needs. Bob Wolf, Chairman of the Ad-Hoc Committee has begun the search and encouraged ad-hoc committee members to do the same. The purchase of the property would need to be approved by the electors at a meeting of the electors.
