In 2026, the WTA is going to start to charge everyone to support the advocacy council. They feel that the work of the advocacy council benefits everyone and everyone should support it. We will now have the choice of paying $250, the minimum required support for the advocacy council, or if we will continue to support them at a higher level, which would be $315.25. Peterson made the motion to pay the minimum of $250, Kaczmarek second. Motion carried.

Public Comment-When will taxes be mailed? Sometime the middle of the month. The wiring is done to hook up the backup generator for the garage. Vic will contact Hillberg Electric about getting the hook up done for the hall too. Keith asked about getting a pressure washer purchased so the guys can get the salt off the trucks. Vic will get it purchased.

Town Board Comment-The WTA spring district meeting schedule is out. Members of the board will be attending at either the Marq or the Carter Casino.

Peterson made the motion to adjourn, Kaczmarek second. Motion carried.
